

STATEHOOD OUTLOOK NOT PROMISING SAYS HOPEWELL

Well Known Democrat Leader and Railroad Promoter Gives It As His Opinion That Prospects Are Gloomy.

"I can see no prospect at all an otherwise and not as an investigator I do not believe the prospects for statehood in the present session of Congress are very bright," said Col. W. S. Hopewell, who, when asked regarding the present situation in the Senate at Washington.

Col. Hopewell returned last night after spending six weeks in New York, Washington, and other western cities. While in the east Mr. Hopewell devoted the greater part of his time to promotion work and did not enter into the political situation very thoroughly.

"I was in Washington about three weeks," said Col. Hopewell. "I did not learn what I could about statehood. There may be some ground for the hope that New Mexico will soon be a state, but just so far as I observed, and a plain democrat, I have no doubts about it."

NOTHING NEW ON THE RAILROAD SITUATION

Asked as to the railroad situation and the prospects for a settlement of the affairs of the New Mexico Central railroad, Col. Hopewell replied that there was nothing new.

C. J. Murray, receiver for the New Mexico Central, arrived by night from Santa Fe and Col. Hopewell was asked if Mr. Murray's visit here today had any significance.

"Mr. Murray arrived last night from Santa Fe and I arrived last night from the east," replied Mr. Hopewell. "Mr. Murray's visit has no special significance and has no connection with my return. Mr. Murray will go to Pueblo tonight.

SANTA FE REDUCES RATES TO PHOENIX

Can Get No Benefit from Long and Short Haul Clause, So Takes Other Action to Compete With Southern Pacific.

Phoenix, Ariz., July 18.—Denied relief from the operation of the "long and short haul" clause, the Santa Fe today put into operation lower rates on commodities and class freight between El Paso, Deming and stations north of Phoenix. It is much longer by the Santa Fe from El Paso and Deming to Phoenix than on the Southern Pacific, though the Santa Fe has always met the latter's rate. Rates to intermediate points are not affected, which now makes all rates in harmony.

GET TOGETHER RALLY ATTENDED BY MANY LAST NIGHT

Prominent Citizens Speak in Presbyterian Church on Campaign for Funds for Y. W. C. A.

A well attended get together mass meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held at the Presbyterian church last night for the purpose of launching a campaign to raise the sum of $1,000 in regard to the funds in the generous gift of a $1,000 made known on the part of Mrs. E. A. Abbott. It will be necessary to meet these expenses in October.

At the meeting an closing prayer by Rev. C. C. Heidman expressed the sincere interest which is manifested in the work especially by prominent members of the association who were made and former members were interested in the program of the evening. Mrs. H. J. Young and Mrs. J. G. Schaeffer, and an acre selection by Mrs. Neupert were honored. Dr. Margaret Carpenter, president of the association, presided.

Attorney Leon Barth spoke of the substantial support given to this enterprise by the people of Albuquerque and of the men of association.

Among those who watched the departure of the train enroute to the mountains were many friends of Dr. Burton, who waited upon the military police to surprise. He protested to the crowd that his duties would not permit his presence in the campamento necessary for the trip.

Attorney Leon Barth spoke of the importance of the association and of the opportunity which is now before it to be established on a permanent and substantial basis. Miss Helen Becton, a national secretary of the organization from Denver, spoke at some length upon the field occupied by the Young Women's Christian association and the branches of its work. She cited typical cases characteristic of the efforts of the association and made a strong appeal for meeting the requirements of Mr. Abbott's letter.

He was followed by Attorney George S. Kline, whose eloquent remarks stirred his hearers to an appreciation of the task before the supporters of the movement in securing permanent headquarters in this city for the Y. W. C. A. He expressed the wish that the contributions to the fund could be secured from as many people as possible, insuring the widest interest in the cause.

Elwood M. Abright, who will direct the presentation of Booth Tarkington's play, "The Man From Home," as one of the means for securing the required funds for the association, said a few words descriptive of the play. The play will be enacted by amateur authors on August 23 and 25 at the Elks' theater, and will be according to the plans of the association, one of the most finished ever staged in Albuquerque. Special scenes designed by the Los Angeles studio in San Francisco will be used, and no effort will be spared to bring out the quaint situations and deft character sketches of the comedy. The coach has a rich fund of experience in amateur theatricals and the local people who participate have attained a standard of ability that surpasses many professional productions.

Enthusiasm for the success of "The Man From Home" was expressed at the meeting.

CAMPAIGN FOR THE Y. W. C. A. HOME MERRILY ON

Rosenwald Brothers Give Handsome Donation of Two Hundred Dollars: Many Plans for Raising Funds.

The members of the committee in charge of the campaign for the Young Women's Christian association have been busy yesterday and today visiting the merchants and professional men of the city and have every reason to feel gratified over the results. Though many schemes are pending for securing the necessary funds, the main dependence is placed on the donations of individuals, and the response from those who have been most liberal and anxious well for the speedy acquisition of the $5,000. When solicited by the committee several business men smilingly replied: "Certainly, I have already decided that I want to help in this work and I am glad to pledge $50." One said: "It is a privilege to assist in placing this association on a stable basis. Here is my pledge for $50 and I want you to come back whenever you want more." Among the liberal donors are the Rosenwald Brothers, who pledged $200.

Literary and philanthropic associated family units of the Rosenwalds as to the relatives of the Albuquerque Rosenwalds residing in Chicago the Y. W. C. A. of that city and Y. M. C. A. is deeply indebted for princely endowments. Plays and entertainments of various kinds are to be forthcoming the next month, that will enable the general public to help a worthy cause while not depriving themselves, but will instead be receiving profitable pleasure. The star entertainment is to be "The Man From Home," to be staged under the direction of Messrs. Abright and Dugger.
